Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord;' he said 'this must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life?

'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

Matthew 16:21-27

DID YOU KNOW?

- This text marks the beginning of the fourth major section of Matthew's Gospel which follows Jesus' journey to Jerusalem and death.
- The word 'Satan' originally meant adversary or accuser. Later it came to mean personified evil. Here Jesus uses it figuratively of Peter who does not yet understand the meaning of Jesus' mission.
- The name Peter comes from the Latin word for rock. In last week's gospel, Jesus named Peter the rock on which the Church would be built. Today that rock has become a stumbling block in Jesus' path.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR A

Share a story of a cross you have had to bear. Did it change you? In what ways did you become a stronger person? Has there been a time when you chose to face hardship or pain rather than avoid it?

FIRST READING Jeremiah 20:7-9

We hear the bitter reflections of Jeremiah in a time when he is down, as he considers that the word of the Lord has meant insult and derision for him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING Romans 12:1-2

St Paul points out that our worship should be worthy of thinking human beings. Our behaviour should be what God wants, not be seduced by worldly standards.

GOSPEL READING Matthew 16:21-27

We hear how Jesus makes clear to his disciples that he was destined to suffer death in Jerusalem. When Peter objects, Jesus teaches Peter - and us - that all followers of himself must take up the cross with him.

Two monks were walking along the monastery cloister reading their breviaries. The older monk was smoking a pipe.

As they passed, the young monk stopped and said, 'I am surprised to see you smoking. I asked Father Superior if I could smoke when I was reading my breviary, and he said No!'

The old monk replies: 'Ah, yes, of course! You see I asked him if I would be alright to read my breviary while I smoked. And he said Yes!'
