Plenary Council 2020
Listen to what the Spirit is saying...

Your voice creates the PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 AGENDA

Adelaide will host the opening session of the historic Plenary Council in October 2020 with a follow-up session in an eastern state in early 2021. Now is the time for Catholics like you to help shape the process by taking part in a Listening and Dialogue session.

Bulletin Board

A Plenary Council is the highest formal gathering of all local churches and is an opportunity for the bishops and other representatives of dioceses and eparchies to discern what God is asking of us in Australia at this time.

A brochure describing the process of the Listening and Dialogue process and how to feed into the national picture is now available. (There are some copies of this brochure available in the foyer of the Church today.)

We encourage you to consider hosting a conversation with those in your local community and have your voice heard. Your online submission will help to develop the Agenda for the Plenary Council in 2020.

JUST STICKS AND STONES?

"Sticks and stones will break my bones, but words will never hurt me." Right.

I have a problem. My mouth runs light years ahead of my brain. That means I too often say things and hurt others without thinking.

Jesus is right. What comes out of us can make us impure. Our words build up or tear down. First, our words of ridicule can destroy others. Some people feel put down all the time. Your words of praise might make their day.

Second, our words shape how we think about people? Do we focus only on faults when we talk about some people? If so, we are likely to miss the good within those people. Doesn't God focus mostly on the good things about us?

Third, our words also shape how others think about people. We can take the opportunity to point out people's strengths when others tear them down. We also can take the opportunity to stop gossip when it comes across our path. Isn't that what we want others to do for us?

Jesus calls the Pharisees hypocrites in this week's Gospel. That word comes from a Greek word meaning "actors." This week, as you talk to and about other people, make sure your words show that your Christianity is not just an act. Who inspires you by his or her refusal to gossip or say unkind words about others? GPBS eNews

GOSPEL

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus, and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and the Jews in general, follow the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow; and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes. So these Pharisees and scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?' He answered, 'It was of you hypocrites that Isaiah so rightly prophesied in this passage of scripture:

This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me. The worship they offer me is worthless, the doctrines they teach are only human regulations.

You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions.' He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean.

For it is from within, from men's hearts, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within and make a man unclean.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- Ritual purity had immense importance for the Jewish people. The laws governing washing probably originated in practices to ensure health and hygiene but physical signs of impurity came to be seen as symbolic of a moral or spiritual imperfection.

- Judaism at the time of Jesus was made up of a number of different groups of adherents like Sadducees, Pharisees and Essenes. These groups sometimes held different beliefs; for example, the Pharisees believed in the resurrection of the dead while the Sadducees did not. This did not cause undue problems however, because what held all Jews together was a belief in one God, in the Law, in their election as God's chosen people and a common worship centred on the Temple in Jerusalem. Their unity was a stronger force than their diversity.
- The washing of the hands by the priest at Mass is a symbolic gesture of a desire for a pure heart.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

- What 'human regulations' in today's world do you find difficult to conform to?
- What rituals and traditions have been handed down in your family?
- What assists you to become more 'pure of heart' and to strengthen your commitment to Christ?
