FIRST READING

Genesis 3:9-15

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden,' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this,

'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts.
 You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life.
 I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring.
 It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 129

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, and therefore I spoke – we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. (Cont. pge 4)

JUNE SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

During June, the Archdiocese asks that we hold two Special Collections - the Propagation of Faith Appeal and Holy Father's Appeal. As we have done in the past, we plan to hold these collections on the one day and divide donations received between the two causes. This collection will be held during Mass in our Parish next weekend (16/17 June).

ST ANTHONY'S FIESTA

In the past, St Joseph's parishioners celebrated the Feast of St Anthony of Padua, with a special family lunch and get-together. St Joseph's Pastoral Team has decided to reinstate this tradition this year.

All parishioners, from any of the three communities in the Willunga Parish, are most welcome to join with others on Sunday 24 June (following the 10.30am Mass) in St Joseph's Hall. Please contact Vanda Farrall for more details, or just bring a plate of finger food to share and come along on the day.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

The Willunga Chapter of St Vincent de Paul would very much appreciate parishioner support to help restock their pantry.

We are in desperate need of:

- Weetbix
- Tea, coffee, sugar
- UHT milk
- Pasta, rice
- Tinned fish, tomatoes, soups and fruit.

Please place any donations into the baskets in the foyer of the Church.

VOLUNTEERS DAY SA

Monday 11 June, 2018

Volunteers are the heart of our Parish community and we thrive because of their generosity, energy, skills, and the selfless gift of their time. We thank all our volunteers for their wonderful contributions.

Our congratulations and best wishes to 13 year-old Willunga parishioner Taras Zagajewski who recently qualified as a radio presenter at Tribe FM 91.1. (As many would already know, the transmitter for Tribe FM is in 'The Shed' at St Joseph's.)

Taras has been given a regular radio show, which he will present with his sister Francesca. Their debut show will be this Sunday (10 June) from 3.00pm - 4.00pm and every Sunday thereafter.

The motto for the show is 'Tune in for your weekly dose of Yorkshire-ness' The style will be lighthearted conversation and a mixture of new and old music.

Listeners can tune in to Tribe FM 91.1 or stream the show via internet from tribefm.org.au then click on listen live.

APPOINTMENT OF APOSTOLIC ADMINISTRATOR

As you are no doubt aware, Bishop Greg O'Kelly SJ (from Port Pirie) has been appointed Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese. There are some copies of a letter to parishioners from Bishop O'Kelly in the Church foyer today.

ENLARGE YOUR FAMILY

During the war in Iraq, I knew some religious sisters who wore buttons that read, "I have family in Iraq". The buttons referred to Iraqi sisters in their religious order and to the people they served there, both Muslims and Christians.

Do you have family in Iraq? How about Mexico? Vietnam? China? Malta? Italy? The Philippines? Jesus says you do, if you follow him.

In today's Gospel Jesus' relatives come to pull him away from the crowd. But Jesus won't leave. Instead he uses the moment to teach. He tells the crowd that his family is larger than his blood relatives, or even his ethnic group or nation. Jesus' family – and your family, if you follow him – includes all people who do God's will. Notice that he includes all people who do God's will, not just his disciples. That means our family includes non-Christians as well.

That was a radical statement to make in Jesus' time, when family and tribal connections were so important. And it's still pretty radical during our time, when many people find it hard to care about people who are different or who live in faraway countries.

So ... immigrants working here illegally to help their families back home? Our family. Muslims in Iraq? Our family. Jews in Israel? Our family. Homeless folks who walk our streets? Our family. The lonely kid who seems to have no friends at school? Our family.

This could change things – couldn't it?

And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 12:31, 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 3:20-35

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either – it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

EXPLORING THE WORD

In Mark's Gospel today the scribes 'from Jerusalem' accuse Jesus of blasphemy and acting for Satan. They fail to see that in casting out demons Jesus is actually undermining the power of the evil one, dividing his 'house'. Instead, the scribes themselves are guilty of blasphemy. They attribute a power from God – the power to cast out demons – to Satan himself. God is willing to forgive all sins but the inability to distinguish good from evil makes one impervious to the presence of God and therefore beyond forgiveness. Those who recognise and do the will of God are the family members who stand united in faith.
