NOTHING BUT A WALKING STICK

FIRST READING

Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer, get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah 'I was a shepherd and looked after sycamores; but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 84:9-14

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation

SECOND READING

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ, for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved, in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came.

Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you too have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

Individuals and groups are invited to respond to the pre-assembly consultation question, "What do you think are the most important things to discuss at the Diocesan Assembly?"

For more information on the Diocesan Assembly, and to share your response to the consultation question, visit www.adelaidediocesanassembly.org or contact Sarah Moffatt in the Diocesan Office (8210 8100).

HEALING MIRACLES ARE ALL AROUND US

Thankfully, I've never been seriously sick or injured. I haven't needed anyone to tend to me physically since I got my wisdom teeth out as a teenager. Which is a good thing since I have an irrational phobia about going to the doctor. Even something as little as getting a shot makes me nervous.

So, I was pretty anxious about getting the COVID vaccine. Regardless, I of course signed up to get it as soon as I was eligible. I was overwhelmed with relief when I learned my friend Jane would be volunteering at the clinic I was going to. She texted me with reassurances all morning until I got there, and when I arrived, everyone who ushered me through the process was just so kind. The woman who gave me the shot had me breathe slowly with her for a few minutes beforehand to relax me. I think I exhaled a whole year's worth of fear while looking into her caring face.

All those healings Jesus performed, and his disciples after him - it had always seemed to me that there was an inordinate emphasis on them. But I get it now, what a miracle of love it is to make someone - body and mind - healthy and safe.

The Commissioning:

Can we leave this place of worship without a prayer for peace? Can we leave this place of worship without a resolution to serve our neighbour? Can we leave this place of worship without a commitment to our friends in this faith community? Can we leave this place of worship without a pledge to forgive those who have hurt us most? Can we leave this place of worship without the determination to bring light to the dark places? Can we leave this place of worship without heartfelt thanks to God who has given us everything? Amen.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next weekend there will be a Special Collection for the Apostleship of the Sea Appeal.

A pastor giving a children's sermon on vestments asked, "Why do you think I wear this collar?" One child answered, "Because it kills ticks and fleas for up to 30 days?"

He died last fry day. Thank goodness he wasn't beaten. Don't worry, he went over easy. He's now on the sunny side and he's definitely in a better plate.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Eph 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, ‘Do not take a spare tunic.’ And he said to them, ‘If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.’ So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

NOTHING BUT A WALKING STICK

Jesus sent out his disciples without a degree in theology, without a certificate from a diocesan training program, and without a catechism. Two-by-two, they walked along with no more than a pair of sandals and a walking stick, both crucial to keep them on the journey. With so little, they still summoned the authority to cast out demons, heal the sick, and preach repentance.

This amazes me, having the degree, pedigree, and reference books by the score to keep me in the arena of orthodoxy. Yet I’m not certain that demons are at all intimidated by these things. Though institutions may grant credibility, only God can provide the authority for ministry. And God grants it to slackers like Peter, not much of a fisherman but possessed of interesting impulses; to James and John, much admired by their mother, at least; and even to Judas, more loyal to himself than to the Lord. It seems God favours those who are willing to stay on the road and travel light. The walking stick is the best credential of all.

What do you carry, in your heart and on your back, that limits your ability to serve?

Time to lighten the load! Identify one element in your life - a relationship, attitude, behaviour - that chronically keeps you from progressing on the spiritual journey. Take steps to reconcile, heal, and move forward.

Don’t think you need a lot of extra equipment for this. You are the equipment. No special appeal for funds. Keep it simple.
