FIRST READING

Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer, get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah 'I was a shepherd and looked after sycamores; but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 84:9-14

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation

SECOND READING

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ, for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved, in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came.

Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you too have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

HAYLEY AND RYAN KNOW THE DIFFERENCE.

Both were Church leaders as teens. As young adults they decided to follow Jesus, like the disciples in this week's Gospel. Since then each has travelled around the world on trips to serve and pray with people. They often talk about how rich their lives have been. Both have even decided to become full-time parish youth ministers.

Both also live rich lives without a lot of stuff. And both have kept close Christian friends with whom they share their hopes and struggles. You see, they know the difference between what they need to follow Jesus and what gets in the way.

Let's go back to the Gospel. Jesus gives his disciples awesome power. Go drive out demons, he says. But he also tells them how to do it. Take a few possessions with you and stick together.

Look now at our culture. Commercials preach that life is meaningless without the newest "stuff". Oftentimes friendships, family, and service suffer because stuff, or working long hours to afford stuff, becomes more important.

It can't be that way with Jesus' disciples. Jesus gave us all power to drive out demons. Today's demons include poverty, prejudice, loneliness, and violence. We can't do it alone. We need one another to follow Jesus long-term, because it's darn tough and full of disappointments. Possessions aren't bad, but they must not divert from fighting today's demons or from forming the friendships that support us.

So this week remember that Jesus has given you power the world needs. The next time you feel like buying something, pray about whether the money or time you plan to spend could be more helpful to a friendship or to people who have much less. Then keep your eyes open for people who are waiting for you to set them free. Like Hayley and Ryan, you'll find yourself in places you've never dreamt of visiting.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Eph 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Jews often had to pass through pagan territory which surrounded their own lands. The gesture of shaking the dust from their sandals was a common one when Jews passed from pagan lands into the lands of Israel.
- The word 'apostle' comes from a Greek word for being sent out.
- Some Christian sects and denominations take this text as the reason they send out people in pairs on missionary activity to spread the gospel.
- The instruction to the disciples to take only sandals and a staff symbolises their complete dependence. Jesus is to be their bread, their clothing, their wealth.

EXPLORING THE WORD

Up until this point in Mark's Gospel the disciples have been travelling with Jesus, listening to his teaching and witnessing his actions. Now they are called to take a more active role. They have watched him drive out demons and cure the sick. Now they are called on to repeat in their own lives and mission, exactly what he does himself. This is a great test of their response to what they have learned thus far. They are to take nothing with them but a staff and sandals, the symbols of the wandering missionary. Nothing else is necessary; they rely on God as they follow Jesus. When they are accepted by people, they are to remain with them, a sign that the kingdom of God is near at hand. For those who reject them, simply shake off the dust and continue the journey. As we saw in last week's gospel, nothing can be achieved where there is no faith.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

- How can you live more simply with only the things you need rather than the things you want?
- How do you feel when people don't listen to you? Do you always really listen to others?
