FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses said to the people: ‘Your God will raise up for you a prophet like myself, from among yourselves, from your own brothers; to him you must listen. This is what you yourselves asked of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the Assembly. “Do not let me hear again” you said “the voice of the Lord my God, nor look any longer on this great fire, or I shall die”; and the Lord said to me, “All they have spoken is well said. I will raise up a prophet like yourself for them from their own brothers; I will put my words into his mouth and he shall tell them all I command him. The man who does not listen to my words that he speaks in my name, shall be held answerable to me for it. But the prophet who presumes to say in my name a thing I have not commanded him to say, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.”’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 94:1-2, 6-9

If today you hear his voice harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 7:32-35

I would like to see you free from all worry. An unmarried man can devote himself to the Lord’s affairs, all he need worry about is pleasing the Lord; but a married man has to bother about the world’s affairs and devote himself to pleasing his wife: he is torn two ways. In the same way an unmarried woman, like a young girl, can devote herself to the Lord’s affairs; all she need worry about is being holy in body and spirit. The married woman, on the other hand, has to worry about the world’s affairs and devote herself to pleasing her husband. I say this only to help you, not to put a halter round your necks, but simply to make sure that everything is as it should be, and that you give your undivided attention to the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 4:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A people in darkness have seen a great light: a radiant dawn shines on those lost in death. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 1:21-28

Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, (Continued page 4)

ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday is exactly 46 days before Easter Sunday (a moveable feast, based on the cycles of the moon). The earliest date Ash Wednesday can occur is 4 February, which is only possible during a common year with Easter on 22 March. This happened in 1598, 1693, 1761 and 1818 and will next occur in 2285.

The latest date Ash Wednesday can occur is 10 March when Easter Day falls on 25 April, which occurred in 1666, 1734, 1886 and 1943 and will next occur in 2038.

Since the introduction of the Gregorian calendar in 1582, Ash Wednesday has never occurred on Leap Year Day (29 February) but it will do so for the first time in 2096. The only other years of the third millennium that will have Ash Wednesday on 29 February are 2468,

2688, 2840 and 2992. Ash Wednesday falls on 29 February only if Easter is on 15 April in a leap year starting on a Sunday. (With thanks to Wikipedia)

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP EMERITUS PHILIP WILSON

Archbishop Philip Wilson, who served as Bishop of Wollongong and Archbishop of Adelaide 45 years of priestly ministry, died suddenly in Adelaide on Sunday, Jan 17, aged 70.

Archbishop Wilson's funeral will be held on 3 February at 11.00am at St Francis Xavier's Cathedral. Because of Covid restrictions it is by invitation only, but will be live-streamed for those not able to attend - YouTube and the Archdiocesan web www.adelaide.catholic.org.au.

THE FINAL LUNCH

After ten years of business (plus a couple of years planning, writing policies, contacting other agencies and training staff), the Galilee Op Shop has finally closed. The staff have enjoyed the teamwork and have raised approximately $200,000.

However, we have reached the end of an era. The Covid closure diminished enthusiasm to reopen. Having been closed for so long, updating stock and cleaning the shop and surrounding areas was just too much. Quinliven Road is closed and will be into the near future. There is a possibility of How Road closing too. Experience has shown that road closures drastically reduce our income.

After deliberation, the decision to close was accepted by the Finance Council, ratified by the Pastoral Council and Fr Josy.

We remember with gratitude Pauline Pym for her original concept and Terry Maloney for his tremendous enthusiasm and hard work in getting the building in place and established.

We thank all staff members, supporters and customers. Without you we would not have been successful.

"THE SOUTHERN CROSS"

The February edition of "The Southern Cross" will be out February 6/7 and will include a tribute to Archbishop Philip Wilson.

WEBINAR

Vaccines, Viruses and Vulnerabilities: Catholic health and care of the human person

The ACU Faculty of Theology and Philosophy in partnership with Catholic Health Australia (CHA) is running a FREE webinar event that brings together international experts and thought leaders to discuss mental health, public health and the question of solidarity in the face of this global pandemic. The first event is taking place on the World Day of the Sick - Thursday, 11 Feb.

Registration is essential via: www.acu.edu.au/wdos2021

HOUSE SHARING

If you know of an older woman who lives alone, but is almost ready to downsize (and share expenses) and may find house-sharing with another older woman a pleasing alternative to selling up and moving, please get in touch with either Sr Margaret Ann or Gael and we will put you in touch with the lady making the inquiry.

Three Lenten E-Retreats with Mark's Gospel

Lead by Rev Dr Michael Trainor

The story of Jesus' death and resurrection offers a profound narrative to retreat with Jesus in his suffering, death and resurrection and explore its meaning for ourselves during Lent 2021. It offers a wonderful spiritual preparation for Holy Week.

Join in via Zoom to these three e-retreats on Saturday mornings, 10-11am:

- Saturday 6 March: Jesus' last meal and his Gethsemane agony (Mk 14.1-52)
- Saturday 13 March: Jesus' religious and civic trials (Mk 14.53-15.20)
- Saturday 20 March: Jesus' death and resurrection (Mk 15.21-16.8)

If you would like to join me for these three one-hour sessions, send me your email address (to my email: michael.trainor@acu.edu.au), and I shall forward the ZOOM link for each of the three sessions. Log into Zoom at least 15 minutes before 10am, so that we are all ready to commence precisely on the hour.

unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit and it shouted, 'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' But Jesus said sharply, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. 'Here is a teaching that is new' they said 'and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.' And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

EXPLORING THE WORD

This is the first of the miracles of Jesus recounted in Mark's Gospel and it is a significant introduction to the person of Jesus and the power he possesses. Only a few verses earlier, at his baptism, Jesus had been revealed as the beloved Son of God. In this short text, Mark contrasts Jesus and the authority of his teaching with that of the scribes. Jesus teaches in such a way that he makes a deep impression on his hearers. Clearly, this is because his authority and his wisdom come from God. Whilst his human audience may still be unclear as to the true identity of Jesus, this is not the case with his 'other-worldly' audience: the unclean spirits know exactly who Jesus is—the Holy One of God—and they recognise his authority and obey his command. They know that the power of the Almighty is greater than the power of the evil one.

DID YOU KNOW?

- In the ancient world many forms of mental illness were attributed to being possessed by 'evil spirits'.
- In Mark's Gospel, Jesus is often presented in confrontational situations with evil spirits, with the Jewish authorities and even with his own disciples when they fail to understand who he is and what his mission entails.

- This text shows that where absolute good is, evil cannot remain.

SHARING THE TRADITION

In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the catechetical process is often begun or concluded with a 'Prayer of Exorcism'. Our understanding of what is meant by this term may be clouded by 'Hollywood' representations of casting out demonic possessors. The Rite itself suggests that the prayers of exorcism 'draw the attention of the catechumens to the real nature of Christian life, the struggle between flesh and spirit, the importance of self-denial for reaching the blessedness of God's Kingdom, and the unending need for God's help'. The question of how a good and gracious God can allow the existence of evil in the world is one which has been debated for centuries.
