FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and some-thing appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. ‘Surely’ they said ‘all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 103:1, 24, 29-31, 34
Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING

Galatians 5:16-25

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-

GET VACCINATED FOR THE COMMON GOOD

Vaccination against COVID-19 is a morally good thing, providing protection for the person vaccinated and the wider community. Some COVID-19 vaccines are associated with ethically questionable production and research practices, but Pope Francis and the Australian Bishops have advised that it is morally permissible to receive any vaccine made available. More information is available at <https://www.catholic.org.au/coronavirus>

INDIA STRUGGLES WITH MASSIVE OUTBREAK OF COVID-19

India is struggling to control a massive surge in COVID-19 cases, with a death toll nearing 200,000. Yet the real death rate is likely much higher, as most deaths in the country are unregistered. Cities across India are struggling to manage a chronic shortage of hospital beds. Several major cities have nearly run out of hospital beds altogether, especially in ICU departments. Places of worship, sports complexes and even railway coaches have been converted into makeshift hospitals in order to keep up with the demand. Your donation today can support communities across Asia impacted by disasters. Visit <https://www.caritas.org.au/donate/emergency-appeals/asia-regional-appeal/>

COVID RESTRICTIONS PLEASE NOTE

The Archdiocesan restrictions haven't been changed or been updated recently. Those listed on the back page still apply. Thank you for your patience.

THANK YOU - ST VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY WINTER APPEAL

The Willunga conference would like to thank parishioners for their marvellous response to our call to help support those experiencing poverty and struggling to be able to support their families.

The total raised from the Winter Appeal donations from parishioners was $1,576.20.

This will help the conference provide the food and financial assistance to the numerous needy families and individuals living in our parish area.

If anyone would still like to make a donation to the Winter Appeal, there are reply paid Winter Appeal envelopes in the foyers of our Churches. Envelopes can be posted to our head office or placed in the collection plates at Mass.

Thank you also for the donations of non-perishable food items over the last few weeks. This has enabled us to restock our pantry cupboard with very high demand food items.

Please continue providing these food donations whenever you are able.

Many thanks,
Mario Bacchin

HOUSE SHARING, COMPANION

We have been contacted by a Catholic lady in her mid 60's who is having to move out of her current rented house at the end of May, due to the rental property being sold. The new owners want to start renovations asap.

She would be happy to share a house with someone already renting, who would appreciate sharing the rental and other costs. She would also be willing to provide live-in companionship to an older lady, who rents or lives in her own house and would like to stay there as long as possible, but would welcome the security of having someone else about - especially someone with a drivers' licence.

If you, or someone you know, would be interested, please contact Sr Margaret Ann (0488 287 552) or Gael Maloney (0447 421 948) for more details.

PEACE BE WITH YOU

Consider the deep peace of Christ. The shalom of God in Hebrew means more than freedom from anxiety. Shalom is the fullness of God's blessings, joy, and satisfaction, a life without need. To have the peace of Christ is to have it all.

Nothing interrupts this abundance. You know you live in the peace of Christ when nothing can harm you. The loss of a job means God has something new to offer you. Loneliness becomes the soil of contemplation, from which new life will come. Illness becomes a means of polishing your soul to a brilliant witness. The death of a loved one is sorrow mixed with the hope of reunion in God's reign. Compassion becomes natural, forgiveness the first response to injury. You face life with freedom, others with love, and death with confidence.

The peace of Christ comes to us in 'angel-speak,' words rich in meaning. We can hear these words, "Peace be with you", like we do most greetings: as a salutation of little impact. Or we can receive these words in full knowledge that Christ isn't saying hello here but means to give us something vital. The peace of Christ is our environment, as native to us as sea is to fish. We live in this peace. We breathe it in and let it out.

"Nothing should ever trouble or haunt thee," Saint Teresa of Avila wrote in her prayer book. She breathed deeply and daily of the peace of Christ.

Different rules apply for Churches with fixed or non-fixed seating. Please check with your Church for details on how seating is handled.

control. There can be no law against things like that, of course. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desires.

Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 15:26-27, 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness. And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.'

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

TAKE A DEEP BREATH

What do these things have in common: wind, water, fire, tongues, and a dove? They are all biblical metaphors for the Spirit of God - and they all fail to capture the fullness of that divine presence. Yet paradoxically, the Spirit who so eludes our definition is closest to us, is the fulfilment of Jesus' promise: "I am with you until the end". The American songbook refers to such nearness in human relationships in this tune: "It's not the pale moon that excites me / That thrills and delights me / Oh no, it's just the nearness of you". Just capitalise the Y in you. The celebrated Jesuit theologian Karl Rahner declares that the Holy Spirit is the "nearness of God". Profound.

Simple. But how difficult it is to remain aware of that nearness. We're aware of the busy, the loud, the fast in our world, but trying to be always aware of the silent, constant, life-giving nearness is like trying to be always aware of your own breathing. For most of us, it's only in moments such as when your hot water suddenly turns icy cold and leaves you gasping that you realise how much you need and desperately want that next breath.

Without that breath, we die. This is more than metaphor: it is reality. "We must will to believe in such a nearness - in the Holy Spirit," says Rahner, and this is what we celebrate today: the nearness of Christ, the nearness of God, the breath that will never be taken away, that is keeping you alive in this very instant so that you may whisper, "Thank you".

As you go out, the Holy Spirit goes with you. The Spirit of questioning will lead us to fresh understanding. The Spirit of persistence will save us from discouragement. The Spirit of compassion will call us to caring. The Spirit of adventure will have us leave routine in the dust. The Spirit of community will give us joy as we work with others. We know the Holy Spirit goes with us. Rely on the Spirit. Amen.
