FIRST READING

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart's content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.

'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart's content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God."

And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp.

When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them 'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 77:3-4, 23-25, 54

The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

POEM ABOUT THE CORONAVIRUS

by Pam Ayres (now aged 74!)

I'm normally a social girl
I love to meet my mates
But lately with the virus here
we can't go out the gates.

You see, we are the 'oldies' now
We need to stay inside
If they haven't seen us for a while
They'll think we've upped and died.

They'll never know the things we did
Before we got this old
There wasn't any FaceBook
So not everything was told.

We may seem sweet old ladies
Who would never be uncouth,
But we grew up in the 60s –
If you only knew the truth!

There was sex, drugs and rock 'n roll
The pill and miniskirts
We smoked, we drank, we partied
And were quite outrageous flirts.

Then we settled down, got married
And turned into someone's mum,

COVID-19
VACCINATION

Safe. Effective. Free.

Somebody's wife, then nana,
Who on earth did we become?
We didn't mind the change of pace
Because our lives were full
But to bury us before we're dead
Is like red rag to a bull!

So here you find me stuck inside
For four weeks, maybe more
I finally found myself again
Then I had to close the door!

It didn't really bother me
I'd while away the hour
I'd bake for all the family
But I've got no flaming flour!

Now Netflix is just wonderful
I like a gutsy thriller
I'm swooning over Idris
Or some random sexy killer.

At least I've got a stash of booze
For when I'm being idle
There's wine and whisky, even gin
If I'm feeling suicidal!

So, let's all drink to lockdown
To recovery and health
And hope this awful virus
Doesn't decimate our wealth.

We'll all get through the crisis
And be back to join our mates
Just hoping I'm not far too wide
To fit through the flaming gates!

READING THE SIGNS

On a holiday in the United States we were driving from Washington to New York and we were very hungry. The familiar neon signs beckoned us. When we stopped for petrol, we asked a couple with two toddlers where we could get an authentic, inexpensive meal. They looked at each other, and nodded, telling us to follow the red and white signs on the side of the two-lane road they pointed out to us. They left us with a warning to keep going until we got there. It was a few kilometres before a small wooden sign on the side of the unlit road with faded letters appeared: "KEEP GOING FOR THE BEST FISH YOU EVER ATE". Then a bit further down the road: "FRIED FISH LIKE GRANDMA MAKES". Then: "WE CAUGHT IT TODAY. YOU EAT IT TONIGHT". There were lots more signs. But it was getting late.

Worried it might be closed, we passed an encouraging sign that said simply: "WE NEVER CLOSE". After what seemed like hours of driving we came upon a dusty carpark with a handful of cars surrounding a simple old place with one last sign: "YOU MADE IT!" Our hunger defeated our apprehension. When we walked in, we were greeted warmly by everyone and an aroma that was second only to the taste of the incredible fried catfish and perch. What a meal!

In our journey of faith, we need to trust signs. They'll do us no good unless we make the choice to follow them.

The Commissioning:
Go from here as those who feed the hungry. We see the need for food and drink, and we will meet that need. We see the need to speak out for justice, and we will meet that need. We see the need to comfort the distressed, and we will meet that need. We see the need for spiritual nurture, and we will meet that need. We see the need to accompany grieving ones, and we will meet that need. Your loving God goes with you as you go forth this day. Amen. GPBS eNews

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 6:24-35

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, ‘Rabbi, when did you come here?’

Jesus answered:

‘I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.’

Then they said to him, ‘What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?’ Jesus gave them this answer, ‘This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.’ So they said, ‘What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’ Jesus answered:

‘I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.’

‘Sir,’ they said ‘give us that bread always.’ Jesus answered:

‘I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.

GOT BREAD?

Being hungry is not a virtue. If it were, the poor would all be holy, and the rich would all be evil. But that’s obviously not true. The state of our hearts can’t be measured by the size of our wallets. But the condition of our hearts CAN be measured by our willingness to share what we have. When we seek to alleviate the distress of those in need, we do two things right. We lift someone locked down by hunger so that he or she might rise to a greater and fuller life. And we also expand our hearts through the practice of generosity so that we might experience “the food that endures for eternal life”. It’s a win-win situation. For as long as we work only for the food that perishes and hoard that for ourselves, we prolong the misery of the world and will not know the joy that belongs to those whose hearts are free to give.

When have you been the recipient of someone’s generosity in sharing time, warmth, or food with you? How can you share those things with those in need, near or far?

Take a refresher course in the corporal works of mercy: Feed the hungry. Give drink to the thirsty. Clothe the naked. Shelter the homeless. Visit the sick. Visit the imprisoned. Reflect on ways to participate in these works regularly.

“I am the Bread of Life. The person who aligns with me hungers no more and thirsts no more, ever”.
